A GROWING NEWSPAPER IN A GROWING COMMUNITY

Optimistic old-timers say it will likely settle down and rain all February. No immediate prospects of a shower.

Our Town

By Peggy Blanchard

Don't look now, but some linemen were up a few poles Wednesday installing additional wire up First street. Maybe this means faster telephone service for Campbell—which will make a good many folks happy; especially the operators, whose little old signal suite often buzzes busy when one tries a call.

Monterey's gold strike of '48 (1948) had a Campbell representawhentive on deck in the person of Nathan Gatton Russell— a gold collector from 'way back when,

He watched the treasure-seekers scramble for the coins, turned over by a bulldozer, purchased some of the twenty-dollar gold pieees for resale.

Twenty-dollar gold coins are worth $35. this year they contain one ounce of gold, each, now quoted at $35., though banks are giving only the $20. face value, it's said.

Mr. Russell's coin collection dates back to 1892, when he first acquired souvenir 50 cent coins at the Columbian world exposition in San Francisco.

It now contains some 1,100 specimens, all catalogued, and many rare U. S. coins.

Mr. Russell holds his collection under U. S. Treasury department permit No. 1, issued him in 1939 when the government called all gold in and buried it at Fort Knox. There were so many requests for permits that special permission had to be denied most applicants—so now, to see Mr. Russell approaching you might think all the United States gold is divided between him and the Kentucky vaults--he comes wonderfully arrayed with gold pieces hung on his watch chain and twinkles both across the vest and in the eyes.

Speaking of gold— Mr. P. J. Stroub, a native of Campbell as were his father and grandfather—objects to this 'old Western' tie-up with Old Settlers' Day. He—or was it his father—remembers the valley before the prune trees were planted, when it was a waving sea of grain—

Anyway, it's a distinction in the gold centennial year to commemorate the origin of a town not founded on a gold mine, but rather a sturdy, growing memorial to our farmer forefathers.

Campbell's modern assessement rolls are costing assistant deputy assessor Owens plenty of shoe leather. He dropped in with a pair of shoes in hand—on his way to the repair shop, so we could see for ourselves.

Mr. Lambert Skillman of Burbank called the other day with a pamphlet for a presidential candidate in hand and the annuoncement that he is on the prospective candidate's committee. Thus officially is opend the political season in our small corner of these United States.

ENTHUSIASM RUNNING HIGH:

Old Settlers' Day Plans Completed "Biggest And Best", Say Chairmen

Committee reports on progress of plans for Old Settlers Day were heard at a chamber of Commerce directors meeting last Friday night.

General Chairman, Ben Strong, received a report from Laurance Hill on the work his committee is doing in making the arrangements for all the events that are to take place at or near the schools.

Registration of the Old Settlers, handled by Mark Purmort, will take place in the lobby of the High School at 10:30 a. m. Luncheon will follow at 11:45 in the High School cafeteria. Guest of honor, and master of ceremonies, will be A. B. Campbell. Mr. Campbell. who was born and raised here, and received his early academic training in Campbell Schools, is now assistant Superintendent of Schools in Berkeley. He is a descendant of the original Campbell family who founded the town. The first Campbells came to this vicinity from Missouri in 1850.

Following luncheon the parade, consisting of floats, drill teams and show horses, will form on east Campbell avenue. Entries in the parade are expected to outnumber those of any previous years. Jim Brand, chairman of the committee in charge of entries, reports that enthusiasum is running high among those competing for prizes by entering unusual floats. The parade will start near the Los Gatos Creek and continue out Campbell avenue to Winchester Road, turning south on Winchester. A reviewing stand will be placed on the vacant lot adjoining the Kopper Kettle, Judges, yet to be named will review the parade as it passes and decide on the best entries, basing their choice on originality in design and theme. Rincon avenue will be the finish line.

Presentation of Colors by the Boy Scout troop, vaudeville acts, musical selections by the Grammar School orchestra and interviews with Old Settlers will highlight the afternoon program in the High School. Simultaneously with the ceremonies in the auditorium, a round-robin basket-ball schedule will be played in the gym between teams in the Campbell league. Four games will be played, with their usual running time reduced in order to allow all to be represented.

The evening program gets under way at 7:30 p. m. with an old-time

GARAGE DOOR WRECKED

Ace Robbins, owner of a garage on Winchester road, took a short vacation from business last weekend.

When he returned from his trip he found the door of the garage battered in, apparently broken by an auto that had skidded into it.

TABS AVAILABLE

Edgar E. Lampton, Director of Moter Vehicles, reminded California's motorists that the close of business February 4 is the deadline for over-the-counter renewals and midnight the same date is the deadline for mail renewals.

IS THAT a rain cloud?

We've added one small prayer to those from the Catholic diocese here, that this centennial be not darkened by drought—

February's "Big Three"

The 38th Anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scout Movement will be celebrated by the 2,120,000 members of the program throughout the Nation during Boy Scout Week - Feb. 6 to 12th. President Marc Vertin of the Santa Clara County Council announced the 83 Troops, Cub Packs and Senior Units of the Local Council with their 2,193 active boy members and 750 adult leaders will join in this Nation-wide observance.

Window displays by individual Units, Charter Night and Parent Night programs, special outdoor events and Community and Institutional 'Good Turns' are among the activities planned by local Units.

Sunday, February 8, has been designated as Scout Sunday and appropriate observance of this day will be carried out in many churches throughout the area. The theme of the week, 'The Scout Citizen at Work-in his home, in his community, in his Nation, in his World' will be featured in all programs during Scout Week.

Since 1910, declared President Vertin, 14,000,000 men and boys have been members of the Boy Scouts of America, and the program continues to attract more and more boys each year. The Local Council closed their year on December 31st. with a 20 per cent increase in membership over the previous year. Scout Week will give the general public an opportunity to observe this program of Character Building and Citizenship Training in action.

Grange Enters National Contest For Community Service

Orchard City Grange of Campbell has entered a national Community Service contest in which the prize is a Grange hall that may range in value up to $12,000.

For its first project in the competition, the grange voted Wednesday night to obtain signers for petitions to create a hospital district in Redwood, Campbell and Saratoga townships.

The action followed a talk by R. C. Groesbeck, chairman of the West Valley Hospital District executive committee, who described the need for hospital facilities in Santa Clara County.

The West Valley Plan would create a district by election and spokesmen for the Grange emphasized today that support of the project will not interfere with nor oppose any other plan to increase badly-needed hospital facilities for the county.

The West Valley plan at present includes no means of taxation or methods of raising funds. At the present time, the grange has undertaken to get 500 names on petitions for an election.

OLD SETTLERS' FLOAT

Grange members also voted Wednesday to have a float in Old Settlers' Day parade, Feb. 21, and heard report by M. S. Keesling and H. Barnes on the market for prunes and peaches and on the new motor vehicle law efective July 1, 1948.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES

By Harry Blanchard

Once in awhile it seems that the effort placed in trying to accomplish an end finds its reward. A short time ago we spoke in this column of the necessity of giving thought to a generation of our youth who find themselves in the category of the overlooked. At least we thought they were in that bracket. Now, we find we were wrong. Since that day when we appealed to the people of Campbell to give thougnt to the juvenile situation. we have received innumerable phone calls, letters and personal visits expressing our own sentiments. Most of the people feel as we do. More than just wishful planning is needed. Action, and ACTION NOW is the only solution. And so, following up their enthusiasm with directness some of the people who feel as we did immediately gave materials, funds and pledges to the furtherance of a Campbell Boys Club center.

For the most part contributing elders, and business firms have requested anonymity. We are going to respect their wishes in this regard. However, we can say that eight business men in Campbell have expressed not only a willingness to help, but have contributed the initial financial impetus so necessary to the continued success of the plan. All of the Civic organizations contacted have whole-heartedly volunteered their support. For all of this, our expression of gratitude is hereby tendered, deeply and sincerely. Please, just don't relax. . .keep up your good work. The price is so small, and the rewards so great. Thanks again, all of you.

As an example of the way our Boys Club has taken hold, mull over the following. The I.O.O.F. Banquet Hall has been engaged for a get-together party this Friday night at 8 p. m. The cost of renting the hall was immediately subscribed on announcement. Four different San Jose firms on learning of the party, donated ice cream and soft drinks. A local restaurant offered to supply hamburgers and coffee. Cal Shrum and his Rythm Rangers, currently playing at the San Jose Auditorium, offered to send some of their musical boys out to do an entertaining act. Others have signified their desire to take an active part in future meetings. To all of these people we give our thanks. . .and on behalf of the boys themselves, we say for them, "nice going". And incidentally, there's nothing private about this meeting. . . any and all who are interested in boys' welfare may come and join the fun! And there'll be enough of food and refreshments to go 'round! It's eight o'clock, Friday night, I.O.O.F. Hall.

Among the things that cheer our day are visits from old-time Campbellites. One recently with Mrs. Etta Eddlemon, who so graciously loaned us old copies of early day papers and magazines, and whose brother, A. B. Campbell, will be guest speaker and master of ceremonies at our Old Settlers' Day celebration. . .Mr. Campbell is of course, a descendent of the original Benjamin Campbell, who founded our lovely town.

And on another bright and shining day a cheerful visit from Charlotte Sutter. . .nee Charlotte Willett, whose Dad came to Californy in the Gold Rush days from Bangor Maine, and instead of tarrying with the miners on the lode took up 200 acres right here on the outskirts of Campbell. . .and found the gold in the fruit his land produced. Mrs. Sutter hasn't missed an Old Settlers' Day ceremony since the very first one. . .and that sounds like a record to us.

And then we have that young old-timer of Campbell who has only been around these diggings for 28 years, Bill Truax. Bill doesn't care to claim any particular distinction for himself in the matter of longeity here, but still over a quarter of a century hereabout is a matter to be proud of. In his youth Bill Truax was known as the "Colorado Kid." His deeds of derring done in the heyday of his career would make a re-reading of Billy The Kid sound tame by comparison. Around the deeper reaches of the Yellowstone, and throughout Montana, the Dakotas and Colorado, our own Bill Truax was a man to be reckoned with. Bill, now just past 82 years young, spent a deal of his time in the 70's and 80's taming down some of the rascals who had trouble making out the difference 'twixt right and wrong. Well, you're going to see Bill on Old Settlers' Day. . .he'll be right here with us. . .and if our power of persuasion holds he'll have his old six guns long just to show, as souvenirs, what finally brought this country around to being the fine place to live in that it is today.

Another young "old timer" who we expect will be much in evidence on our big day, will be Dad Lee. Dad's colorful history, tales of the good old days, and his tall yarns of the past, are becoming known as the "Campbell legend". Dad says he's crowding ninety. . .but you'd never guess it from seeing him on his daily rounds.

The list is long, of those Campbell will honor on February 21. Each week we'll give a little side-light on others who have earned the distinctive title—"Old Timer".

Buc Basketball Line-up For Tangle

Friday night Jan. 30 at the local gym, the Campbell High basketball squads have a chance to move into contention for the league championship when they meet the Fremont Indians of Sunnyvale. The preliminary game is slated to start at 7:15, with the varsity contest beginning about 8:30.

In league play the Indians have won two games and lost one, while the Bucs have split two decisions. Fremont is a slight favorite. Clubs are evenly matched. Coach Robert Robinson will probably start out the combination of Dayton and Cartoni at forward, Magginette, center; and Corsiglia and Gazay at the guard positions. Expected to break frequently into the lineups are Ciraulo, Howe and Forest.

The 130 outlook is poorer, as the Fremont 130's are undefeated in three starts while the Buc lights have yet to win a contest.

Probable starting linup, according to Coach Bob Pifferini, are Silva and York at forward; Sakamoto, center, and DeVilbus and Beth manning the guard spots.

Last Friday the Bucs split a twin bill with the Live Oaks Acorns. The varsity trounced the Acorns by a 49-38 count while the 130's were losing 26-22, Monte Dayton led the varsity with 17 points, followtd by Magginette and Corsiglia with 9 and 8 respectively. The 130's were paced by DeVilbus, Beth and York with 6, 6, and 5 each.

Campbell Court Notes

By Judge Blaine

Motif for Old Settlers' Day being old-time western, the Campbell judge is moved to philosophize on this theme.

He remembers old-time Campbell as being about as far from old-time western as you can imagine. Benjamin Campbell, founder of the town, was not a miner but a farmer, and intensely religious and law-abiding. He set the original mood of the community.

For decades Campbell was known as a county moralistic spot. It was a neighborhood of church folk of most conservative variety. Few even played cards. Dancing was frowned upon, and Sunday recreation was socially unapproved. No intoxicating liquor was legally sold here. An arrest for disorderly conduct was so rare as to be almost unknown.

Campbell Court had so little activity that in the 1920's it was discontinued and our township was for a time merged with that of Santa Clara.

Today much is so changed that Campbell has been called a county trouble spot. The reconstituted Campbell Court is so busy with cases that it "pays" even financially, and the Campbell judge can't even find time for a vacation.

In spirit we have been going back toward traditional old-time western. Most of our trouble makers came here in a sort of new gold rush. Indeed, rushing for gold in the income and wages sense is in our blood - with even school teachers and ministers not wholly exempt. Almost incredible as it may seem, even the judge himself has had a raise in salary.

So - on with the dance. Let joy be unconfined, whiskers and all. Should our celebration add inmates to the County Jail their fines will help to pay mounting county expenses. In fact, if our hilarity mounts high enough the arrests will be a boost for incorporation.

The art of life, we see, is to give what we have a constructive twist.

Pre-Easter Series On KSJO

'Immortal Stories from the Book of Books,' a regular Sunday afternoon feature over KSJO,1590, the dramatic portrayal of the highlights of the life of Jesus Christ during his brief stay on Earth.

Dramatized by the famed Sunday players of Hollywood, each Sunday afternoon's half-hour play is a complete drama. This Sunday's production, entitled 'House Upon the Sand,' illustrates the visit of Jesus to the mountain where he preached His immortal Sermon on the Mount and related the parable of the House Upon the Sand.

Although these dramatized plays will continue for a full year centered around authorized versions of the Scriptures from both the new and old testaments, the stories dealing with the Life of Jesus will come to a climax on Easter Sunday, March 28 with 'The Resurrection.'

Kenneth A. Wagon, from the San Joaquin Experimental Range, will speak at the next Quarterly Dinner Meeting of the Santa Clara County Cattlemen's Association, Saturday Night, Jan. 31, in Hotel Milias, Gilroy.

His topic is 'Ten-Year Results of the Experimentation with Range Livestock Carried on at the San Joaquin Experimental Range in Madera County.' Mr. Wagon's talk will be illustrated with colored slides, and should be of great interest to all cattlemen.

At this meeting the following new members will be welcomed into the organization: Sidney J, Mille and Fiori Silacci of Gilroy; German A. Silva of San Jose; Raymond D. Nilmeyer of Sunnyvale; Edward Andrade of Warm Springs and Warren West of Menlo Park.

President O'Connell also reminded all members of the Association that brands, registered with the Bureau of Livestock Identification, must be renewed by January 30. The fee then is $1.50, and after that date a penalty of $2.50 is added. Brand renewal notices and payment should be mailed to Cashier, State Department of Agriculture, State Office Bldg. No. 1, Sacramento 14, California.

All cattlemen in Santa Clara County, whether or not members of the Association, are invited to attend the meeting, but reservations must be made with Association Secretary, Harvey L. Hansen, 216 Spring Bldg., San Jose, Calif.

One man, James Marshall, by his accidental discovery of gold in the tailrace of Sutter's Mill at Colma on January 24, 1848, affected the development of a continent and the course of a naion's history.

A Message From L. E. GARCIA

-About your new Servel-

There are many of you who have inquired

"when may I expect delivery of a new Servel gas refrigerator?" Up until this time we have had to be just a little bit vague about giving you a date. That wasn't the way we wanted it, but we had learned that the manufacturer and his distributors were themselves vague about the whole general picture of production. Material shortages were the dominant factor affecting short supply; then came labor disturbances, then came shipping slowdowns. Withal, one thing and another—far beyond the control of any one man or firm created an uparalleld situation in the orderly sequence of our business. We think now, though, that a definite change for the better has come.

We were, just this week, assured of our quota of six brand new 1948 Servel Refrigerators, to be shipped in the immediate future. One of them, a six foot box is on the way now. . .and the rest are immediately following. Now. . .you know, and we know that a whole lot of people want those boxes. . . and we want to be absolutely fair about who gets them. So, we suggest that if you're one of the many, many people in this vicinity who have asked us about delivery please come in now and place your order and be assured of one of the first boxes to arrive. There won't be enough to go around. . .but we must abide by the rules. . ."first come, first served," for greater electrical conveniences

Be Prepared

Think back to the home or homes you have lived in, the past ten years. Remember the inconvenience of house-wiring from lights that blinked when the refrigerator went on, or the wires you strung along the floor to connect a lamp or clock; or the fuses that blew out when you connected the iron? By spending very little extra money on ADEQUATE WIRING...all these things could have been avoided.

Give Adequate Wiring the place it should have in your home. Plan ahead for the many new home appliances, for better lighting, for television, by wiring ahead for modern Electriliving. Carefully check over wiring plans when you remodel or build and make sure the house-wiring has these essentials:

1. Plenty of plug-in outlets
2. Plenty of light switches properly placed
3. Wires that are large enough (at least number 12 wire) to supply full power to all the appliances that will be used during the lifetime of your home.

Letters From Readers

THE EDITOR,

Campbell Press, Campbell Calif.

On January 15th., under the caption SIGNS OF THE TIMES, your Mr. Harry Blanchard wrote a most forceful editorial apropos the subject nearest my heart, namely, the problem of supplying adequate recreational amusement for the younger generation who will one day lead the government. Mr. Blanchard has 'told us off.' I do hope that column will be read by every parent and awaken every last one of them to their responsibilities.

Youth training is, of course, the primary duty of the parents. Then the school takes up its share of the shaping up - and - sad to relate - many educators believe in teaching all the don'ts never realizing the confusion they create in the growing child as to the whys and wherefores.

However, as Mr. Blanchard implied, we have just passed through a period where, under one pretext or another, a vast number of offsprings were neglected to the extent that their home life proved extremely unattractive compelling them to seek amusement and recreation wherever it could be found without regard to its ultimate effect on their general behavior, throwing aside all criticism with 'what else can we do' or 'where else can we go.'

Mr. Blanchard rightly says a way must be found to guide our juveniles. Loftier thinking - that's the ticket. It can be done by gaining the confidence of these youngsters. There isn't one not worth a chance. Keep 'em busy doing the things they enjoy. Make all youth activities attractive. Let them tell us what they like. Ninety-nine percent of their suggestions will be accepted wholeheartedly. Kids are wise - they know what they want and will achieve great things if only given a chance.

If necessary let's serve 'em soda pop and sandwiches in order to gain attendance. That's a great incentive and we elders know we never did anything without incentive.

These kids yearn for love and knowledge.

Let us help these boys and girls whether their parents belong to our church or not. whether their dads wear coveralls or a dress shirt - not one of us owned a shirt when we came on this earth. We gained raiment (knowledge) gradually and very slowly we learned our lessons. It was environment that contributed so materially to our ultimate education.

Don't look down on a poor kid because he appears to be neglected mentally, and physically undernourished. That kid has the right to the same things the most fortunate of us enjoy.

HE NEEDS TO BE WANTED.

HOMEMAKING TODAY

Protein needs special emphasis when we are all trying to keep food costs at a minimum and help save the foods which must be sent to Europe.

This important food substance furnishes the building materials for all new body tissues and for keeping these tissues in good repair. Because protein is not stored in the body, an adequate amount should be eaten each day. Being the menu maker, you will want to be ever-watchful that your family has enough high-quality protein for good nutrition.

Small children require about two times as much protein in proportion to their weight as adults. This is because they are developing and are building new cells and tissues. Teen-age boys and girls, who are active and are growing at a fast rate, need ¼ to ⅓ more protein than adults.

There are two types of protein, known as "complete" and "incomplete." The complete proteins contribute all the essential amino acids, sometimes called "building stones," necessary for growth and development. They are of animal origin and are found in meat, eggs, fish, poultry, milk and cheese. Soy beans, Brazil nuts and almonds, although of vegetable origin, also contain complete proteins.

Incomplete proteins, which lack some of the essential amino acids, are of vegetable origin and include peas, beans, lentils, cereals and nuts. These are very important when you are planning thrifty menus because they are less expensive and are good extenders for meat, eggs, fish and cheese. However, since they are incomplete, they should be supplemented with small amounts of the complete proteins.

Remembering that meat, wheat and eggs are on the list of foods which we should conserve, plan main dishes combining the two types of proteins. For example, use red beans with beef short ribs; chicken chop suey on crisp rice cereal; green peppers stuffed with rice and leftover meat; soy bean, cheese and bread loaf; ham upside-down cornbread; kidney bean and cheese loaf; salmon and noodle casserole or pancake rolls stuffed with chicken, turkey or leftover meat.

It is not vital that the proteins be combined in the same dish or even in the same meal. However, it is necessary that they be included sometime during the day. If your main dish is an incomplete protein such as baked beans or scalloped potatoes and peanut butter, then the dessert might be a pudding, ice cream or fresh fruit and cheese.

The complete protein might be in the salad, such as cottage cheese and fruit, cubes of pineapple and American cheese, or tuna salad. Another way of incorporating enough complete protein in your meals is to serve a cream soup or hot chocolate made with milk.

Soy beans are often forgotten as a good source of complete protein. They can be sprouted and served with a creole sauce. Or the beans may be baked, made into croquettes and served with a tomato sauce, or combined with celery, onion and green pepper in a casserole. The soya flour makes good muffins, quick bread or griddle cakes.

Towering peaks of the Andes Mountains mark out Peru, once the center of the highly-developed Inca Empire and the headquarters of their Spanish successors. The Andes cut the 532,000-square mile country into three parts—the dry coast, the mountains, which contain three-mile-high villages, and the heavily-forested Amazonian interior. Some 85 percent of Peru's 7,500,000 people depend on agriculture for their living, but large quantities of petroleum, mining and forest products are produced. Peru still exhibits vestiges of both Indian and Spanish cultures as well as her own modern developments. Her representative to the United Nations is Carlos Holguin de Lavalle. Her flag has vertical red and white stripes and the country's seal.

Senior Scouts Hold Meets

Senior Scouts of the district just completed a week of conferences under the direction of Dan Henry, regional deputy executive from the National Scout Council.

Scouters from Campbell, Sunnyvale, Saratoga and Los Altos met in Los Altos at Dunne Hall, San Jose.

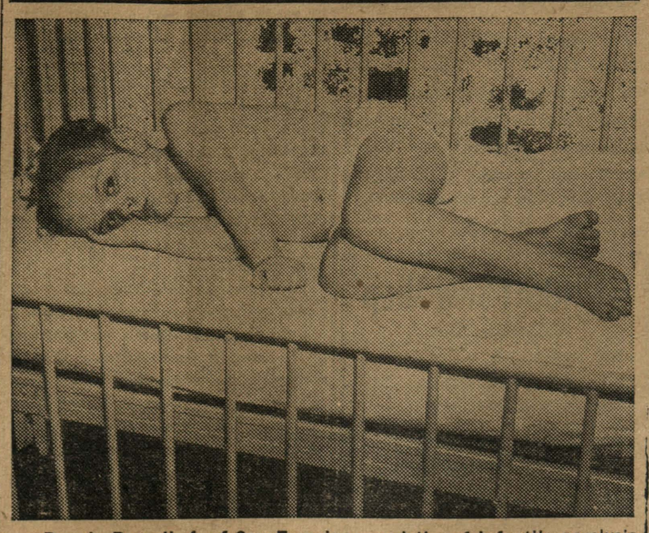
Chairman Dick Engfer in commenting on the meeting, pointed out the fact that the Senior Scouting Program is gaining in popularity and Dan Harry's visit is most opportune. Senior Scout programs are for boys from 15 to 21 years of age and include Explorer Scouting and Air Scouting. The Council has eight Senior Units with 83 boys enrolled at the present time and three new Units in the process of organization.

Total salaries earned by employes of the San Francisco airport were $18,500,000 in 1946.

The chronometer is the most accurate of all instruments for measuring time.

California had an estimated need of 41,624 beds in general hospitals in 1946, with only 27,525 such beds available.

"THIS IS NO FUN!"



Bonnie Russell, 4, of San Francisco, a victim of infantile paralysis, patiently awaits the day when she will be able to play again. Citizens of California will be helping Bonnie and hundreds like her when they support the March of Dimes appeal. Contributions should be sent to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis Chapter in this county.

San Tomas District News

The San Tomas PTA convened for its regular meeting in the cafeteria of the Campbell Grammar School at 2:30, January 20, Mrs. John Perata, President presiding.

Miss Ruth Metzker's Fifth Graders entertained the members with a Safety First Program consisting of songs and skits based on everyday safety problems.

The week of January 26th to 30th, inclusive, was designated as Book Drive Week. Books are needed for class libraries, and any childrens' books, excepting comic books, will be acceptable and greatly appreciated. The books can be left at Mr. Shuey's office during book week.

Plans were completed for the cup cake sale to be held during the noon hour, Friday, Jan. 23. Mrs. Raymond Martin is the chairman of this sale, and she asked for volunteers to assist her.

Mr. Arthur Tindall, Vice-Principal of Campbell Grammar School, gave a talk on recreation - planned and tentative - based on a survey to be made of the whole district and to be recommended by Mr. Conrad, State Board of Education, who recently spoke before an open meeting of the Coordinating Council for Recreation at the High School.

Mr. William Henley, Superintendent, talked on the progress of the building of San Tomas School, and the probable date of completion. The present tentative date for moving has been set for after Easter vacation.

Mr. William Shuey, Principal San Tomas School, urged that the Book Drive be given full cooperation by all parents as the need is very definite. He also called attention to the landscaping of the new school grounds which would be largely up to the parents and children planting local shrubs and making this a donable project.

Miss Ruth Metzker's 5th grade won the room attendance prize for having the most mothers present.

Mrs. Mary Bersano, Mrs. A. Taormino and Mrs. Mary Spadafore kindly assisted Mrs. Dale Lloyd, Refreshment Chairman, in the serving of refreshments.

It was announced that the February meeting date has been changed to the 3rd in order that the group may partake in a joint Founders Day Program with the Moorpark and Campbell Grammar School Units. This business meeting will be necessarily short due to the Program to be presented by all three PTA Groups.

The Cub Scout Movement got under way in the San Tomas area on Monday night. Present to start things rolling was that enterprising young man Ken Robinson. Ken suggested that the parents and officers hold three meetings prior to obtaining a charter. He explained almost in full the Cub Scout Movement and then showed a moving picture 'Cub in the Home.'

Commissioner Ed Dalzell of Campbell gave a short talk explaining the Round Table meetings. Mr. George Stubby cubmaster of Pack 9 of Campbell was also present, as was Mr. Gunnar Pederson who is chairman of the San Tomas Cub Scout Committee. Also on the committee are Mr. Mills, Mr. Mattix and Mr. Epperson.

T. M. Bohn is the cubmaster for this group.

Next committee meeting will be on Wed. Feb. 4, 1948. Parents of prospective cubs please attend!

Los Altos Begins Incorporation Study

Incorporation of Los Altos—a subject long discussed heatedly in this community by factions both for and against the proposal--came up for airing again Tuesday night before the Los Altos Business association meeting at Los Altos Grammar school.

Once before, approximately a year ago, the Business association undertook discussion of the feasibility of incorporating the Los Altos community into a self-governing town, but no definite action, one way or the other, resulted.

Re-introduction of the subject recently by Paul Nash, member of the Business group, was followed by appointment of a committee, to be headed by Nash, which was instructed to secure information concerning the cost of beginning the preliminary work involved in such incorporation procedure. Larry Payne and Larry Nelson were named to serve with Nash.

The committee is expected to have its findings ready for presentation at the organization's next regular monthly meeting in February.

Scouts Invest Tenderfeet At Fathers' Dinner

A troop Father and Son night and Tenderfoot investure marked the first of Scout Troop 31 activities for the new year. Dinner was served in "Box Social" style with the men bidding for the gaily decorated boxes brought by the boys. Proceeds from this successful affair will be used to buy troop camping equipment.

A Tenderfoot investure, conducted by SPL Jack Williams, followed the dinner and tenderfoot badges were awarded Jay Martin, Raleigh Davis and Billy Ward. Presentation of the badges and a word of welcome to troop 31 was given by scoutmaster Larry Cowper. Games and singing concluded the evening's program. Arrangements for the affair were handled by PL Marlowe Windbigler with Mrs. Glen Hodges lending her assistance in the kitchen. Scouts attending were SPL Jack Williams, PL Marlowe Windbigler, Dick Gleed, Gerald Gilliam, Mike Deveit, Darrel and Jay Mertin, Bob Dalziel, Tom Hitchman, Leon Madden, Raleigh Davis, Leroy Gilliam, Ron Gilpatrick, Jimmy Simms, Bob Pierce and Clifford Smith.

Future plans for the troop include a Court of Honor to be held February 11th., at the High School and a snow trip to the Sierras.

Organizations To Name Candidates

Campbell organizations this week are concentrating on a list of candidates for councilmen, city clerk and city treasurer for the proposed city of the sixth class after a recent resolution by Board of Supervisors regarding election to incorporate May 25.

Each local group has been invited by Campbell Chamber of Commerce to submit names for five councilmen and the two city officers. Requisites for city officials have not been made public, but it is understood that candidates must be residents of the area within the proposed boundaries and registered voters therein.

Less than four months remain before the election.

melodrama 'Bertha the Beautiful Typewriter Girl.' The play will be enacted by members of the Footlighters, local theatrical group.

Following the play an old time Weostern dance, interspersed with comedy acts will take place in the high school gym. Curly Dee's Rocky Ridge Boys will provide the music and entertainment. This band, nationally popular before the war, has recently been reorganized with most of its old members back. Observers at rehearsals declare it one of the finest western bands they have heard.

Campbell To Have New Electroliers

After many months of planning, waiting for materials and finding sufficient available man-power, the Pacific Gas and Electric company crews have started work installing new lights for all Campbell streets.

The project was initiated in the beginning by the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, under Ira Grim, Past President. Mr. Grim worked unceasingly in his efforts to improve street lighting here, and it now appears his efforts have borne fruit.

According to the P.G.&E., there are to be 22 new 'up-sweep' arms installed on Campbell avenue. Each of the brackets, six feet in length, will mount a 600 candlepower light. Throughout the rest of the town there will be a total of 48 new installations. New wiring is to be placed all existing circuits, and new 250 candle power lights are to replace all old ones.

With the addition of the new street lighting, Campbell will take its place as the best lighted town in the county, according to the P. G. & E. and Chamber of Commerce officials.

O'CONNOR FUND

latecomers were turned away for lack of space.

One of the highlights of the dinner was the announcement that the $900,000 mark had been topped for the fund to build a new and modern O'Connor Hospital.

Archbishop Mitty linked the building of a public institution through private contributions to the democratic method of fostering human welfare.

'You are upholding your obligations in the American way to your neighbors in your community and to the poor and suffering when you contribute voluntarily to the new O'Connor Hospital,' the archbishop declared.

Other speakers on the program were Sister Berenice, superintendent of O'Connor Hospital; Dr. Leon P. Fox, chief of Calvary Methodist Church; John P. McEnery, field committee co-chairman, and Dr. E. O. G. Schmitt, chairman of the doctors' committee to aid the O'Connor campaign.

Patrick H. Peabody, campaign general chairman, who presided at the dinner, said that the $900,000 total represents 90 per cent of the $1,000,000 goal of the central committee, which has been active since the start of the campaign Nov. 20. David C. Kirby is chairman of the committee.

The field committee, which officially began its activities with the dinner, will carry the campaign into the communities of Santa Clara Valley served by O'Connor's. It has a goal of $500,000, to bring the total sought from the general public to $1,500,000. McEnery and Harold Gardner are committee co-chairmen.

The new O'Connor Hospital will have facilities for 300 patients and will cost $3,000,000. Half the cost of construction will be underwritten by the Sisters of Charity, who administer the hospital, provided the other half is raised by popular subscription.

Fritz, Please Come Home

Fritz, you've been so smart to catch on to the things going on around this great world, that we've often said. 'Why he's so smart he can almost talk'. So that makes us believe you can also read. 'Now, here's what you do; when the people you're visiting get their Campbell Press this week, you grab it, turn to the back page, (that's the one you're reading now Fritz) and you'll find out that we're missing you an awful lot, and we want you to come home. If you get lost just drop by the Press office and ask them for one of those brand new maps of Campbell, and you'll find your way home alright.'

Almonds Bloom In Irrigated Orchards

Almond trees in and around Campbell are in bloom this week.

In full and feathery blossom, the early fruit trees smiled back at smiling blue skies under a warm sun that has dispelled heavy frosts and even freezing temperatures.

Ranchers weren't smiling, though. Most any night the bud may be nipped for good, damaging an entire crop.

Most orchards are being irrigated—in the midst of the 'rainy' season—and prospects of the worst drought in some 70 years makes every drop of water doubly precious.

Hazy weather Wednesday afternoon sent hopes soaring for an end to dry spell in which three inches less rainfall has been reported than the average to date.

Letters To The Editor

ROBERT WURFER SR.
Rt. 2 Box 649 Campbell Calif.
January 26, 1948

Dear Sir.

Since coming to this beautiful Valley (to Campbell) about 19 months ago, I have often wondered why the 'Patrons of Husbandry' better known as the Grange, received so little publicity here.

The Grange is the oldest and strongest rural community and farmer fraternity in the world. Reading the history of the Grange, which was organized at Washington D. C. in Dec. 4, 1867, you can see that through its efforts education has been promoted, the life and the welfare of the farmer has been advanced, the life of the rural people has been considered and American ideals uplifted, and within the Grange Walls thousands of capable rural leaders have been trained. It is Not a political or party organization. This order does not interfere with ones religious or political views and its doors are open to the whole family, man woman and children. You can find many ministers in this organization and most of them very active.

Recently at the Annual National Convention at Columbus Ohio 18,000 received the seventh Degree, among the many more thousand present, there where delegates from 37 states representing more than 800,000 members.

Every year around this time more then 120,000 officers are installed for the current year.

Last week the newly installed officers at Campbell attended a special officers' meeting at Mrs. H. Shaddle, master of Orchard City Grange (Campbell) for a discussion and planning of the activities for this year. This promises to be a very active year, and we would like to have the readers of your paper informed of your activities.

Robert Wurfer Sr.
Publicity committee.
